

Sandy Hook's Summer Reading and Writing Activities 2021

Read for 20 minutes each day & write for 15 minutes each week!

Try to fill 5 in a row, or try to fill the whole board!

Find a shady spot outdoors and read your favorite book..	READ IN YOUR PJ'S!	Read a new genre you have not read before.	TAKE TURNS READING WITH A BUDDY.	Create a Family Book Club together and talk about your reading.
Practice retelling a story to a family member.	Act out your favorite story with a sibling or adult.	Set a goal for yourself for how many minutes you can read in one sitting.	Read a book from the C.H.Booth Library.	Read Poetry today!
Read a story you wrote yourself!	Record yourself reading your favorite book.	FREE SPACE	Read a book from your favorite author.	Read and make your favorite recipe with an adult.
Read the directions to your favorite game and play it.	Read a wordless picture book.	Choral read a book with your family.	Read a magazine.	Read two versions of the same Fairy Tale.
Write a story and read it to a family member.	HAVE a BOOK CLUB LUNCHEON WITH YOUR FAMILY.	Read books that start with each letter of the alphabet.	Practice reading aloud using different voices.	Read three books from the same author.

Ideas gathered from multiple sources including: Lexia and Fountas & Pinnell LLI.

NAME _____

HAPPY SUMMER

The following digital resources will remain available to students through the month of July.

Don't forget to use our username: shook & password: shook

Links to each resource available by clicking the icon. Visit the Sandy Hook Library or Language Arts page for the link.

